Révision: 001

Qu'est-ce que la marque UL ?

Underwriters Laboratory est le premier laboratoire d'essais ayant vu le jour aux Etats-Unis.

UL évalue les produits destinés au marché américain, sur la base des exigences en vigueur aux Etats-Unis en matière de sécurité.

La marque UL est le gage du respect absolu des normes de sécurité américaines et canadiennes. Aux yeux des consommateurs, organismes de réglementation et fabricants nord-américains, UL est le logo de sécurité-produits le plus reconnu. Chaque année, plus de 17 milliards de produits sont marqués UL.
